Get in the Christmas Spirit for the Launch of Oriel Môn's Annual Craft Fair 10.11.17

There will be a warm and festive welcome for everyone this year as Oriel Môn launches its ever-popular Christmas Crafts Fair on Friday, November the 10th at 7.00pm.

Since the Fair was established in 1991, it has grown in popularity, and has become the highlight of the year for many visitors and locals alike. Nicola Gibson, Visitor Experience Manager, Oriel Môn stated "We are all looking forward to the launch of this year's Craft Fair, the atmosphere promises to be particularly festive, as Côr Ieuenctid Môn will be singing carols and free mulled wine and mince pies will be served. We also have 43 craftworkers exhibiting with us and many of them are brand new this year. Items will range from jewellery, wood, slate, ceramics, glass, textiles, and Christmas home decorations. I'm sure there will be something for everyone whether it be a Christmas gift of something special for yourself".

During the evening of the launch, 'Caffi Blas Mwy' will be open from 5.30pm to 8.30pm where Gwennan and her staff will be introducing their new festive menu. For those wishing to partake in a meal before the Craft Fair opens, you can call Blas Mwy to book your table on :- 01248 751516.

The Festivities will be carrying on throughout the season with a very special Christmas Fun Day for all the family on the 9th of December, from 11.00am to 3.00pm. Special guests will be Betsan Brysur and Tara Tan Toc, there will also be children's workshops, face painting and much much more.

The Christmas Crafts will be open until the 31st of December, with early closing at 4.00pm on Christmas Eve. The Oriel will also be closed on the 25th and 26th of December and the 1st of January. Normal opening times will resume after New Year's Day where Oriel Môn will be open daily between 10.30am and 5.00pm, admission is free.
